Student Planning Board solves the Gordian Knot

It was student government week, in Wilmington, and a student board of selectmen, Monday night, granted a liquor license to the High School cafeteria, and a gas station permit for the High School parking lot.

They were outshone by the pupils who were the Student Planning Board. Those planners, Tuesday night, cut the Gordian Knot. Remember the Gordian Knot, in Asia Minor, cut by Alexander the Great about 300 BC?

STUDENT PLANNING BOARD MEMBERS: Checking over the Woburn Street Bypass plans, Tuesday evening in the Planning Board room in the town hall basement. From left: Paula Kavanagh, Co-Chairman Pat Hansen and Mark O'Hearn, John Viole of Lake Street, and Ed Adams of Pineridge Road, student town manager.

The picture was taken before the students had come up with the idea of doing away with Route 129, and were actually trying to propose alternatives to the problem of the Woburn Street Bypass.

The student planners studied the problems of the proposed Woburn Street Bypass, of the traffic in Wilmington Square, and of the problems of better access to Route 93 and Route 129, and then solved all the problems with one blow by declaring that Route 129 does not exist any more. They gave it back to the Commonwealth.

That one move, they told the members of the adult Planning Board, solved most of their problems. The adults had to agree.

The student planning board had a couple of reasoning problems, too. They solved the land on which Wilmington High School stands to Industrial Zone. They invented a new zone, for what they termed "troublesome lawyers." They didn't name the zone, but they put it smack on Route 93. That, they declared, is where the lawyers can do all they want to, about zoning.

One student said the lawyers should stay in the southbound side during morning hours, and in the northbound side in the evening.

The last move that the student planners made was to give half of a newly proposed residential development to the Conservation Commission. That, they said, solved half the problems of that area.

Panda will go Bear

Tax rate $29.50

Wilmington's tax bills for the first half of 1974 were put in the mail Tuesday evening, and by this time most taxpayers have gotten the news - which can be described as neither bad nor good.

The rate, for the first part of 1974 is $29.50, which is exactly 50% of the tax rate for 1973. The Town Crier, last week said it might be a little bit lower because of the increase in taxable property in Wilmington as of January 1, 1974.

Principal Assessor, Anthony Krzeminski, better known as Tony K, says there was an increase in the property valuation, but that he is putting the "little bit that is left over" into the Overlay Fund. Mr. K is trying to stabilize the tax rate that will be declared for the latter part of 1974, and is putting aside a little money to help do this. It will be a full fiscal year tax rate, he explains.

Many of the assessors of Massachusetts are doing just that thing, in this spring of 1974 says Tony K.

Taxpayers' abatement statement

Principal Assessor Anthony Krzeminski has issued a statement reminding Wilmington taxpayers who qualify for an abatement as a disabled veteran, blind, elderly or widow, that they must file applications with the Board of Assessors.

Completion of these forms qualifies those eligible for abatements for the tax period January 1 to June 30 of this year, and for the tax period July 1 to June 30 of next year. Revised forms for the veterans' and the elderly have been approved by the State Tax Commission.

The Board of Assessors suggests that all taxpayers who qualify for these exemptions file these forms as soon as possible.

Reading Municipal Light circulates petition

The Reading Municipal Light Board is very disturbed at the rising costs of fuel and the resulting effects on their customers' electric bills. The Light Board protests the U.S. policy of "energy at any price" and the evident lack of control over the price of petroleum.

Reading has a contract for the purchase of power from Boston Edison and must pay per the terms of that contract. It appears that someone, the President or Congress, are the only ones that can do anything with regard to the price of oil. As a result, and in the interest of their customers, the Reading Municipal Light Board is circulating an "Energy Crisis" petition for their customers to sign. These will be available at all pay stations and at 25 Haven Street, Reading. The pay stations are located at Worthen's Market, Main Street, Lynnfield;

Weinberg's Department Store, 370 Main St., Wilmington; Central Pharmacy, 135 Main Street, North Reading and Center Drug, 4 Washington Street, North Reading. The petition urges the President and our Representatives to:

1. Order the Justice Department to determine if any illegal, anti-trust activities have been engaged in by the corporations controlling the flow of energy to our homes and businesses.
2. Instruct the Cost of Living Council to use the power already given to it to half run-away prices of petroleum products.
3. Provide for the equitable distribution of petroleum products.
4. Create a Federal corporation with power to act as a yardstick comparison in the petroleum industry for the discovery, production and bulk delivery of oil products.

5. Direct the Federal Power Commission to protect the consumer from efforts to penalize him for conserving energy while profits go unchecked or unregulated.
6. Take immediate action to prevent the large oil corporations or any business or person, from making excess profits while the people of the United States pay greater and greater prices for essential energy.

The system demand for the Reading Municipal Light Department is down below last year, in fact the demand is below what is being billed to them by Boston Edison Company due again, to a minimum demand contract provision. The Department is attempting to offset this extra cost by cutting back in every area possible, consistent with the maintenance of the service the customers expect.

Student Government dinner next Monday

Members of the Student Government will wind up their week's activity next Monday evening, with a dinner in the North Intermediate School at 6:30 p.m. With them will be members of the Wilmington League of Women Voters, which has been sponsoring their activities, and members of the town government, including some selectmen and some planning board members.

The student officers are Eddie Adams, Town Manager; Janice Spada, Moderator; Selectmen John Arvanitis, Wade Holbrook, Robert Stewart, Mary Castaldi and Roy Meyer; Planning Board: Paula Kavanagh, John Vinola, Kathleen Pavelcak, Mark O'Hearn, Patricia Hanlon, John Theriault and Marjorie Cunningham; Historic Commission: Susan Walker and Lauri Lombardi; Recreation Commission: Leslie Webber, Ann Marie Breakey, Susan Hosmer, Carol Anne Taylor and Beth Bradford; Conservation Commission: Marie Fantasia, Kathi Shinnars, Dave Mather and Kenneth Leavitt; and Fire Chief Karen MacEachern.

They will also spend an hour at the Department of Community Affairs in Boston, and have lunch from 11:45 to 12:45 after which they will go to the Metropolitan Area Planning Council headquarters on School Street where Madeyn McKie of Woburn Street, (Wilmington); Secretary of the MAPC will be their hostess.

The library trustees, Robert Carter and Mike Falzone, will visit the Boston Public Library, with Philip Merriam as their host. The visit will be to the new wing of the Library at Copley Square, where they will observe the new audiovisual aspects of libraries, and the new computer operations.

headquarters in Lincoln, where they will see the new solar heated home.

The student Board of Selectmen, Friday morning, will be in a party hosted by Madeyn McKie, which will visit the office of US Senator Ed Brooke in the morning, and end up with the Planning Board students at MAPC headquarters in the afternoon.

The youngsters with the Recreation Department are getting what will perhaps be the best trip. Recreation Director Ron Swasey will take them to Manchester, N.H. to view the largest municipally owned ski facility in the United States. Mr. Swasey, a former employee of the Model Cities Section of Manchester, will also show the results of that program of a couple of years ago, after which the group will come closer to home, and see the Recreation Program of Andover.

Wilmington Spotlighters have incorporated

Wilmington's little theater group took a giant step forward Monday evening.

At a special meeting at the American Legion Hall, the membership voted to effect their charter and bylaws, and became a non-profit making corporation, waiting only upon response from the office of Secretary of State. Thanks to the generous donation of his legal services by Attorney Joseph Courtney, the Spotlighters may now operate as a non-profit corporation and may accept tax-deductible gifts and donations.

In the three and one-half years they have been in existence, since November 1970, the Spotlighters have brought to the audiences of Wilmington and surrounding towns such plays as: "George Washington Slept Here," "Next," "Absolutely Murder," "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty," "last fall's dinner-theater sell-out Plaza Suite," Act III; and others.

On April 26 and 27 at Wilmington High School, Barrows Auditorium, they will present "Never Too Late," the gleeful comedy that had New Yorkers lining up in droves for over two years. It's never too late for laughter, and laugh you will at "Never Too Late." A merry show, written by Sumner Arthur Long and directed by William Silvestri, tells of the struggle between joy and dismay for two prospective parents. After all, Papa's over 60 and Mama's not too far behind. There's turmoil in the household, and uproarious laughter in the audience. Tickets are on sale at the Penthouse Boutique, Lecci's Market, the A-Plus Store in the Colonial Park Mall, and the Senior Citizen Drop-In Center at Wilmington Plaza. They may also be reserved by calling 658-3440.

Tewksbury schools inexpensive but Wilmington's aren't

A study of 11 school systems in the area shows Wilmington ranks third in the amount of money spent for each student every year, and Tewksbury is ninth. This was shown in figures presented to the Tewksbury school committee by School Supt. John N. Wynn.

The study indicated the cost for each student varied from a high of $1,177.13 for Andover to a low of $794.94 for Billerica, a spread of $382.19.

Other communities included in the study ranking from the second most expensive to the second least include: Burlington, $888.55; Wilmington, $976.78; Chelmsford, $943.85; Reading, $955.82; North Andover, $944.51; Dracut, $937.71; Methuen, $941.09; Tewksbury, $934.42; and Lowell, $794.41.

Wynn based the study on figures provided by the state Department of Education.

The cost of educating a student for a year can vary greatly, depending on the need for new schools, programs available to students, increases in the number of students and other factors.

Stains and spots may be a problem on your floors, but there are easy remedies by rubbing them with a fine emery paper of No. 50 steel wool.

In some cases the spot or stain may be rubbed with a cloth, dampened with acetone or carbon tetrachloride. Be careful, since both substances are flammable.

Once cleaned, areas should be carefully buffed and waxed. If heavy furniture is to be placed on any composition flooring, it's a good idea to use furniture casters or gliders. This will keep your floor unmarred.

When you're thinking of him to complete an interior job see us at Swensen's Home Courtesy Center, 615 Main St., 658-5051.

We have a display of the basic shop tools by Rockwell - 19" table saw, radial drill, 18" radial saw, drill jig saw and band saw. You will also find the complete line of Pittsburgh paint (700 colors), plus brushes, rollers, thinner and turpentine. Open daily from 9 am to 6 pm.

Bright Hint: Wax should be removed at intervals on all floors, depending on how much wear the floor receives.

How Best to Run Towns

The Christian Science Monitor, the first day of April, published the first of three articles on the government of Massachusetts towns. There was a picture of the Sudbury Town Hall and a discussion of selectmen, town managers, town administrators, and executive secretary. Twenty-three towns, the report says, have a manager, 14 have an administrator, and 56 have an executive secretary.

The article tells how the Town of Stoneham has been resisting the impetus of acquiring a town manager, the proposal having been voted down three times in three years. Two proposals for a town charter, with a town manager were voted down, then a proposal for an executive secretary to the Board of Selectmen.

The Stoneham Town Meeting, the Monitor reports, wouldn't even hire a town data-processing coordinator, although the town had already purchased a computer. In the next paragraph the Christian Science Monitor starts with a homily by Wilmington's Town Manager, Sterling Morris.

"Massachusetts towns oppose managers because the towns are plagued by provincialism. Incidentally, they are also wasting millions and millions of dollars."

The article further discusses the differences of opinion. Stoneham officials charge that the taxpayers money would not be saved. They point to the salary of a town manager, and ask how many assistants he will hire. They point out that a town administrator will usurp power held by elected officials.

This last is a charge, says the Monitor, that supporters of a town manager form of government will accept, and the paper quotes one selectman (no town specified).

"We need someone who will overrule the little jealousies of elected 'kingdoms,' someone from out of town who has no cousins or uncles who will ask him favors."

The curious paragraph comes nearly at the end of the discussion. Talking of Mr. Morris, it says he began his career in the town of Warren, Maine, 1700 population, where he held down 11 jobs at one time, and was cited for this in Ripley's Believe It or Not.

Warren saved money, Morris told the Christian Science Monitor, because he applied for federal grants and improved efficiency.

The Monitor has no quotes from Warren officials - but the Town Crier has one - from the former Town Clerk, a lady of middle aged years.

"What a lovely boy he was!"

Connell - Doucette

United in marriage recently at an ecumenical ceremony at St. Thomas of Villanova Church in Wilmington were Deborah Ann Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Connell of 16 Parker St., Wilmington and Sgt. Eugene D. Doucette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Voles of 9 Canal Street.

The Rev. Francis W. Mackin and the Rev. George B. Taylor of the Wilmington Congregational Church were officiating clergymen at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She designed and made her bridal gown and fashioned the gowns worn by her attendants.

Mrs. Thomas Aprile of Lowell, attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Judith and Patricia Connell, sisters of the bride; Lorna Voles, sister of the groom and Karen Boleri, all of Wilmington.

David Doucette was his brother's best man. Ushering were Thomas Aprile, Lowell, brother-in-law of the bride; Lawrence Knight, U.S. Airforce, Pease Air Base, Portsmouth, N.H.; Lawrence Gallagher, Michael Landers, Drew O'Connell and Richard Peters all of Wilmington.

The Elk's Lodge, Tewksbury was the setting for a reception for 225 guests. Pink and white decorations graced the guest tables and also the bridal cake which was made by the bride's cousin, Mrs. Leonard Sands, South Hampton, N.H. The guest book was in charge of Maureen Connell, sister of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Wilmington High School, class of 1973 and her husband is a Wilmington High School graduate, class of 1971. Following a wedding trip through southern U.S., the couple are making their home in Louisiana where the groom is stationed with the U.S. Airforce.

North Reading learned the hard way

Back in 1971 the state legislature passed a law which has since been known as the "Chief's Bill." Except in the smaller communities, the law said, Chiefs of Police and Fire Departments had to be paid a salary 1.8 times that of the highest paid patrolman or fireman.

That law was certain to evoke a sense of displeasure on the part of selectmen in many communities. They try to keep tax rates down, and the selectmen rightly called the law a case of state interference with home rule.

Both Tewksbury and Wilmington selectmen were among those who resisted. A suit was entered in Lowell against the Tewksbury selectmen and one was entered in Woburn court against the Wilmington selectmen. In addition a criminal complaint was filed against Wilmington's Town Manager in Woburn District Court because, it may be said, in obeying the decision of the Board of Selectmen he was not obeying the laws of the Commonwealth.

In both cases the suits were settled out of court, with the respective chiefs getting their enlarged salaries.

Why bring it up now?

In the Town Meeting just past, a voter wanted to know why Wilmington's Chief of Police should be paid a salary of over $23,000 a year.

That voter should have been in Middlesex Superior Court on March 15th when a Writ of Mandamus was handed down against the Selectmen of North Reading. No one had slapped a criminal complaint against those gentlemen and instead of settling out of a court they had fought all the way to the Superior Court.

They lost. The Town of North Reading now has to pay those salaries.

Morden - Barrett

Mary V. Wooden of Laurel Ave., Wilmington and Eric P. Barrett of 44 Boutwell Street were united in marriage at 1 pm on Saturday March 23rd. Baskets of white carnations graced the pulpit of Wilmington's Congregational Church where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Taylor.

Mrs. Helen Garnett, served her mother as matron of honor while David Barrett, son of the groom acted as best man. Ushering duties were in charge of Walter Garnett of Reading and Bruce Stone of Concord, both sons-in-law of the bride.

Given in marriage by her son, Ronald Morden of Sanford, Maine, the bride was radiant in a full length gown of aqua taffeta with overlay coat of chiffon. Her gown featured beaded cuffs and neckline and she wore a matching headpiece trimmed with small seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white carnations and pink roses.

The matron-of-honor wore a full length pink gown featuring a lace bodice and long lace sleeves. She wore a matching hot pink headpiece and carried a cascade of white and pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the congregational Church Hall where guests were present from New Brunswick, New York, Conn., Mass. and Maine.

For traveling the new Mrs. Barrett chose a suit of beige and brown and beige accessories.

Following their wedding trip to Nassau, the couple is now residing at 44 Boutwell Street, Wilmington.

The Rev. Father Joseph W. Leahy, pastor of St. Dorothy's Church was honored Tuesday evening by the ladies of the B.V.M. Sodality on the occasion of the 45th anniversary of his ordination. A candlelight supper was served by the members, after the 7:30 pm Mass and entertainment was provided by Frs. Brennan and Bagatto, the Curate and Deacon of St. Dorothy's.

Dynamics Research announces record earnings

Dynamics Research Corporation of Wilmington (Boston Stock Exchange), a manufacturer of components for industrial measurement and a supplier of technical services, has announced net income of $238,381 or 53 cents per share for the year ended December 31, 1973 as compared to 1972 earnings of $44,110 or 10 cents per share.

Sales for 1973 totalled $8,548,686, up 71 percent from 1972 sales of $5,000,181.

John S. Anderregg, Jr., president of DRC, noted that increased sales and earnings were due to expansion in several key market areas and continuing customer demand for the company's products and services.

"The shipment rate for our encoder systems rose steadily throughout 1973," Anderregg said, "reflecting our successful penetration of the machine tool market and strong demand being created for encoders by U.S. industry's conversion to the metric system."

Anderregg indicated that the company entered 1974 with a backlog of $5,449,950, the largest in its history.

Letters

Dear Larry:

I would like to reply to an article in your paper, March 28, 1974 head lined "Would starting the pumps at the Aldrich Road wellfield have made the vote different?" My answer is No! Not for two million dollars! And no guarantee. So the Supt. of Water Works reported to the Commissioners that a check showed only four voters present at the Town Meeting interested in the water problems.

First of all, I was one that met with the Commissioners and also with the Board of Selectmen, as you well know when you printed my picture in your paper with two jars of filthy water. Second, I had been in bed for three weeks and was in bed the day of the meeting. My daughter attended in time for the water article. She phoned me from the school to tell me of the request of two million dollars and asked what I thought of it. My reply was to table it until more information was available or vote it down.

If you remember, at the Selectmen's meeting I was assured I would be notified of the coming meeting with the firm of Whitman & Howard, the Water Commissioners and the Board of Selectmen so that more information would be available. I never heard from Mr. Banda, the chairman. Now let us face facts, since that meeting with the Selectmen, the water at 116 Aldrich Road has been clear - others report the same in this area and it did not cost two million to accomplish this. If stopping the pumps at our newest wellfield on Aldrich Road gave us clear water then it proves that pipes are not the cause, but the fault lies with the pumping stations. We have three, or is it four wells closed now. What is left? One or two? Is the entire town supplied from the oldest well in town? Who wants to buy a pig-in-a-poke for two million?

My record shows that in over forty years, I have missed very few Annual Town Meetings, and believe me, I regret missing this one. I look forward to meeting with the Board of Selectmen, Water Commissioners and anyone else who is really interested in solving the problem before the well runs dry.

Sincerely,
Ruth M. Kitchener
18 Aldrich Rd.

Dear Capt. Neilson:

The League of Women Voters of Wilmington is looking forward to its fourteenth year of study, providing information to the voters of Wilmington and taking action in the community. Our members donate many hours of their time in order to keep our citizens informed and active participants in government. As this is an election year, we will be sponsoring candidates nights in the fall to give voters the opportunity to hear and ask questions of the candidates for public office. The funds necessary to carry out our activities are provided by member dues, fund raising events, and contributions from civic minded individuals and business firms in Wilmington.

One of our most proud accomplishments is Student Government Day. The League, in cooperation with Wilmington school officials, is presenting to junior and senior high school students, for the eighth year, the opportunity for practical experience in the mechanics of town government.

Due to the energy crisis this year we are attempting to solicit your support without calling on you personally. However, if you would like more information, or have any questions, please do not hesitate to call Mrs. John Marshall at 697-7074 or Mrs. Robert Hande at 698-6277. We hope you will support our activity in the community through your encouragement and contribution.

ORANGE LINE TERMINUS: A Lexington firm, the Thomas Dwyer Co. Inc., has been awarded a $210,000 contract to perform a study on the location of the terminus of the Orange Line, from Boston to Reading, on the MBTA. The study is to be completed by the end of the year.

The drawing above has been furnished by the Reading Chronicle, showing the present location of the railroad terminal near Reading Square, plus the area of Route 128, and the area of Lowell Street - Route 93, both suggested for terminals in that town.

There have been in the past suggestions that the terminal be located in Wilmington, a concept which was unanimously rejected by Wilmington's selectmen four or five years ago because of the burgeoning costs of the MBTA - costs which have since increased almost astronomically.

Eighth Grade Boys...Tom Stewart pumped in 19 points for the West, but that wasn't enough as Steve Woods countered with 18 to give the North a 36-26 victory. Steve Longo added seven for the North while Shawn Hicks hooped five for the West. The game benefited each school's student council.

Sun. March 31...The Tewksbury crew jumped out to an early 2-0 lead ten minutes into the third game and it looked as if they were going to blow the Wilmington skaters off the ice for the second straight game. However, Jim Irwin snapped a 49 minute scoring drought for the Wilmington sextet when he scored his initial playoff marker at 11:06 on a power play with Larry McLaughlin sitting out a tripping penalty.

The Wilmington team went onto the score board with three unanswered goals in the next four minutes to take a 4-3 lead which they never relinquished. Tim Walsh tallied his third goal of the series to close the gap to 4-3 for Tewksbury midway into the middle frame, but Tom Mazzapica flipped home his third series marker and second of the game in the waning seconds of the stanza to give the Wilmington sextet a two goal lead once again.

John Curran and Dave O'Connell scored once each in the early part of the final frame to give Wilmington a commanding 7-3 lead and the outcome was in no doubt. Tewksbury's Mark Bullock, the playoff's leading scorer with nine points, scored twice in the last seven minutes to close the gap to 7-5, but it was not enough as Wilmington took a 2-1 series lead. Mite A (15-4-3)...In their third playoff game the A's defeated Billerica, 4-3. Jeff Brown opened the scoring early in the first period on a line set-up from Ed Harding. Billerica knotted the score minutes later on a powerplay. Wilmington tallied three times in the second period. Ray Durling, John Robson, and Kevin Smith all lit the lamp. Assists went to Smith, Harding and Paul Brady. Billerica scored twice in the final period but that was as close as they would come. At Uunenberg turned away nine shots while Wilmington had 22 on net. Friday at 4:00 p.m. the A's will be participating in the second annual Mite tournament at the Youth Ice Arena with Metrowe providing the opposition.

Mite B (20-3-3)...The B's completed their season by defeating Methuen 1-0. After two scoreless periods Kevin Sullivan scored the game winner, unassisted early in the third period. Goalie Ed Laquidara was outstanding stopping 20 shots.

In the middle stanza Billerica pumped home two markers for a 4-2 lead. Pete Orlando got the fire lit assisted by Zambardi and Scozzaro. With three minutes to go Mark Boudreau, unassisted, tied the score and with two seconds Sean O'Donoghue won it with an unassisted tally. Billerica outshot the A's 21-17.

Squirt B (Playoffs)...The B's poured 27 shots on the Medford net and skated away with a 5-1 win. Unassisted goals in the first period by Frank Newark and John Cushing gave Wilmington a 2-0 lead. That lead was boosted to 4-0 in the second period on markers by Ron Greenberg and Daryl MacDonald. Assists went to Chris Turner, Newark, and Bill Robinson. Ted Moran closed out the scoring in the final frame with an unassisted tally.

Peewee C (Playoffs)...The C's concluded their season on a sour note bowing to Billerica 4-2 last Saturday. Billerica jumped out to a 3-1 lead in the first period. Wilmington's lone goal of the frame came off the stick of Scott Elliott assisted by Mark Potenza and Mark Lanni. In the third period Eric Banda found the range with Lanni again picking up the lone assist.

Peewee A's (12-12-2)...On Saturday, the A's closed out their season in a winning fashion, trouncing Burlington, 11-1. The A's took a 1-0 lead into the second period and then scored six more goals to break the game open. They added four more goals in the third period. Matty Knon got the hat trick for the A's with the remaining goals being scored as follows: Steve Wingate (two); David Ballou (two); Mike Robson (one); Lee Mugford (one); Greg Howell (one) and Billy McCann (one).

Peewee B (14-7-5)...In their final game of the year the B's held off a stubborn Reading team 3-1 last Saturday. After a scoreless first frame Tim McCann put Wilmington on the board assisted by Ed Giroux and Dennis Foley. Rich Robinson made it 2-0 in the third period assisted by Mike Beatrice and Paul Boudreau. With 22 seconds left Reading cut the lead to one, but the B's held on for the win. Jim Burns led the team in total points with 46 and not far behind with 46 were Pete Davey and Bob Greenberg. Rich Robinson took leading goal scoring honors with 25 points while Pete Davey and Dennis Foley tallied 23 times each. Jim Burns led the team with assists, collecting 27. Tim McCann had 25 and Bob Greenberg was a close third with 25. The B's overall record was 25-17-4 for the season.

Bantam B (Playoffs)...In the opening round of the playoffs the B's whipped Acton 5-0 last Wednesday. Mike Carlin and Tom Ravota opened the scoring in the first period with Tom Gracia picking up the lone assist. In the middle frame Gregg Moulton from Steve Kennedy made 3-0. In Assabet Valley League action Wilmington remained undefeated posting a 9-1 win over Belmont last Friday. Mike Carlin scored twice, once in the first period and again in the second. Tom Gracia and Paul Sullivan picked up helpers on the first marker and Brian Tighe assisted on the second.

The Wilmington Midget hockey team travelled to Assabet Valley rink, Concord to play hockey as a team for the first time. Although losing, they played an excellent game against an all-star team which has played all over the eastern seaboard and Canada.

Bantam A's Wilmington took the lead at 8:30 in the first period with John Fairweather beating Assabet goalie Sprague with a 20 foot slapshot high on the glove side. Dave Rossi, Assabet Valley blaster, a screamer shot off the pads of Wilmington goalie tender Paul Cristelli at 11:15 of the period to even the score. Thirty seconds later Paul Mango, Assabet on a pass from Ron Marasco zinged one off the post to go ahead by a goal. The score was tied early in the second frame by a perfect give and go. Mike Gracia took a pass from Alan Wilson and slipped the puck over the goal tender to even the score.

The teams played scoreless until Ron Marasco beat Brian McKie with a blazing slap shot from the blue line late in the second period. Although Wilmington had a slight edge on shots on net, goalender Sprague of Assabet was equal to the task and the third period was scoreless.

Paul Cristelli and Brian McKie combined for 28 saves. Assabet goaltenders had 32. These two teams go at it again on Saturday at Assabet Valley Concord, at 7:10 pm, March 6th.
